Robert E. Eicher

Mr. Eicher received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Virginia. He was awarded his B.A. with honors in 1958, and his LL.B. in 1961. He was one of three students in the Political Science Honors Program and received the Z Society Book Award in Political Science. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the Raven Society. In law school, he was a writing director for the Student Legal Research Group and a faculty student assistant. Mr. Eicher passed the bar examination in 1960 after his second year in law school. Following his graduation in 1961, Mr. Eicher practiced law with Copenhaver & Tremblay in Charlottesville, Virginia, for several months until he entered the U.S. Air Force as a legal officer for three years. He joined what is now Williams Mullen as an associate in March 1965 and became a partner in the firm on January 1, 1968. He serves as counsel to the firm and is chair of the Virginia State Bar's Disciplinary Board for a term expiring on July 1, 2009.
