

Structuring Public-Private Partnerships for Stormwater Projects

10.14.2015

In October 2015, Brad Nowak presented on "Structuring Public-Private Partnerships for Stormwater Projects" at the Southeast Stormwater Association's (SESWA) annual conference in Chattanooga, Tenn. During his presentation, Brad discussed the first stormwater public-private partnership in the U.S., which was built in Prince George, Md. View SESWA's 2015 agenda here.

Related People

- Bradley J. Nowak – 202.293.8143 – bnowak@williamsmullen.com

Related Services

- Energy
- Renewable Energy
- Public-Private Partnerships