

Managing the Lions and Elephants - Working with Executives and In-House Counsel During the Litigation Process

07.11.2018

On July 11, 2018, Tony Anikeeff will participate on a panel about working with executive and in-house counsel during litigation as part of a Signature Luncheon hosted by the Association of Corporate Counsel's National Capital Region. See below for more information on the program.

"This interactive discussion between seasoned in-house counsel and outside counsel will delve into the need to assess the team and will offer ideas on what goes into managing your executive team's expectations and the litigation process within the company. They also will delve into the practical challenges of preparing executives for deposition and trial, as well as the use of alternative dispute resolution in such matters."
