

Corporate

Williams Mullen provides comprehensive legal services and innovative solutions to regional, national and international business clients. Our clients range from multinational Fortune 500 companies to family-owned private businesses.

We provide corporate and business legal services to a broad range of industries, including banking and financial services, insurance, manufacturing, retail, computer software and technology, information technology, energy, investment banking, real estate, construction, health care, media and communications, transportation, food and beverage, franchises and utilities.

Our lawyers provide seasoned guidance; first working to understand our client's individual businesses and goals, then providing solutions that mirror those priorities and needs. The practice was recognized for this work in Chambers USA, where it was touted as a "high-energy, highly professional firm that provides a personalized service."

Our core capabilities within the Corporate Section include mergers and acquisitions, entity formation, strategic planning, commercial transactions and financings, contracts and business agreements, securities and corporate governance. We also have a significant practice devoted to serving private equity companies, fully understanding the complex environment those companies face.

The benefit of choosing Williams Mullen is our deep bench of approximately 240 lawyers. Working as a team enables us to effectively draw upon the firm's resources in specialty areas as needed, including tax planning and executive compensation, real estate, intellectual property and employment, among others.

We pride ourselves on our ability to help clients manage legal and business risks in a timely and cost-effective fashion. As quoted in Chambers USA, our team "bring(s) big-firm expertise with a middle-market company focus."
