Williams Mullen Awards Annual College Scholarships

05.16.2012

The law firm of Williams Mullen announced today the recipients of the 2012 Dobbins-Clark-Eicher-Neely-Nusbaum Scholarship from the Williams Mullen Foundation. This scholarship program was established to assist one or more exceptional students who are employees, or the children or grandchildren of employees, of Williams Mullen, with higher education costs. To be considered, students must have demonstrated excellence in the classroom and community.

Farhad Aghdami, partner and chair of the scholarship committee, comments, "The committee was quite pleased with the applications we received this year. We are confident the students chosen for this award will prove to be excellent representatives of the scholarship program. Williams Mullen is proud to be able to honor excellence in academics and community service in this way."

The following students have received scholarships for the 2012-2013 school year from the Williams Mullen Foundation:

-Caitlin Suzanne Adair is the daughter of Tonja Adair, who works in the firm's Norfolk office. Caitlin will be attending Old Dominion University in the fall as a freshman.

-Kari Barclay is the son of Dean Barclay, who works in the firm's Washington, D.C. office. An entering freshman, Kari will attend Duke University in the fall.

-Daniel Patrick Dillon is the son of Donna Dillon, who works in the firm's Richmond office. An entering freshman, Daniel will attend Virginia Commonwealth University in the fall.

-Thomas R. Krimowski is the son of Joy Krimowski, who works in the firm's Richmond office. Thomas will be a sophomore at West Virginia University in the fall.

-Katherine Anne Tillson is the daughter of Liza Tillson, who works in the firm's Richmond office. This fall, Kate will be a freshman at Sweet Briar College.
