

Benchmark Litigation Names Williams Mullen a 'Highly Recommended' Firm in Virginia and North Carolina

10.06.2009

RICHMOND, Va. – Williams Mullen is pleased to announce that the third annual edition of Benchmark Litigation has named Williams Mullen a 'Highly Recommended' firm in Virginia and North Carolina. In addition to the firm's ranking, Calvin W. "Woody" Fowler, Jr. and Donald H. Clark were named 'Local Litigation Stars' in Virginia. Turner A. Broughton and Adam Casagrande were named 'Future Stars' in Virginia. Daniel L. Brawley, M. Keith Kapp, Elizabeth Davenport Scott, and Camden R. Webb were named 'Local Litigation Stars' in North Carolina.

"This is exciting news and we are pleased that Benchmark Litigation has recognized the firm's talented individuals and our ever-growing practice," said Woody Fowler, chair of the firm's litigation practice. "Williams Mullen is unique in that we can provide a wide range of litigation services and skills to our clients. Our expertise is the reason that many regional and national companies choose us to handle their litigation needs."

The Williams Mullen litigation practice consists of several different areas of expertise including: administrative and regulatory, antitrust, appellate, certificate of need, class action, complex commercial, construction, ERISA, fiduciary, financial services, franchise, government contracts, government and corporate investigations, insurance coverage, intellectual property, labor and employment, land use and eminent domain, long-term care, product liability, real estate, and unfair business practices.

Benchmark Litigation is the only publication that focuses exclusively on litigation. Rankings are determined through a variety of different factors including client interviews, peer recognition, client-base, and depth of matters.
