

Williams Mullen Named Area's Best Corporate Law Firm by Metro Magazine

07.13.2009

Williams Mullen announced today that for the fourth year in a row, the firm was awarded Metro Magazine's MetroBravo "Standing Ovation" award for the area's "Best Corporate Law Firm." Metro Magazine readers voted for the firm based upon client service, popularity and overall experience. Williams Mullen was also named "Honorable Mention" for the area's "Best General Law Firm."

"We are honored with this recognition of our firm. This year has certainly been marked with many milestones for Williams Mullen," said Keith Kapp, vice president at Williams Mullen. "Over the course of the past year, we were pleased to have welcomed David Paulson and his corporate team to our firm, expanded our banking sector and added an international tax practice."

Williams Mullen's win will be showcased in the July 2009 issue of Metro Magazine.

About the MetroBravo Awards

Established in 2000, Metro Magazine's Bravo Awards showcase the "best of the best," from the Triangle to the Coast. Over 4,000 readers voted on everything from best law firm to best coastal restaurant. Winners are showcased in July and August issues of the magazine in a two part special.

Related People