

Williams Mullen Attorneys Featured in Book of Leaders

02.23.2009

RALEIGH, NC- Williams Mullen announces three of its attorneys were featured in Business Leader's first annual Book of Leaders. This annual guide includes profiles of several of the Triangle's top business leaders and top businesses. Each profile includes biographical information, contact information, and leader photographs. Special recognition is provided to Business Leader Magazine award winners throughout the year.

Recognized this year were Williams Mullen partners, Charles B. "Chuck" Neely, Jr., Elizabeth Davenport Scott, and Camden R. Webb. "We are so pleased with Chuck, Elizabeth, and Camden's recognition for these awards. Each of them has been indispensable to this firm for many years now and the awards are a great recognition of their dedication to the legal community and the Triangle as a whole," said Keith Kapp, vice president at Williams Mullen.

Chuck Neely- Legal Impact Leader

Mr. Neely was chosen as one of 24 Triangle Legal Impact Leaders. Winners were selected based upon their impact on the legal industry, impact upon their company, and impact on their community through service.

Elizabeth Davenport Scott- Women Extraordinaire

Ms. Scott was one of 10 winners of the 2008 Women Extraordinaire award. Recipients underwent a rigorous selection process and were chosen based upon their leadership abilities, community involvement, mentorship, and professional development.

Camden R. Webb- Triangle Mover and Shaker

Mr. Webb received the honor of being named one of the Triangle's 2008 Movers & Shakers. The Movers & Shakers Awards honor up-and-coming business leaders in the Triad community. Nominees must be either rising leaders within companies with more than 100 employees or C-level executives leading rising companies with fewer than 100 employees.
