

William A. Anderson II Comments on Changes to Water Discharge Guidelines

12.10.2008

William A. Anderson II commented on the Environmental Protection Agency's changes to the Clean Water Act in the Virginian-Pilot. Starting on Dec. 19, new permits will be required for ships discharging water "incidental to the normal operation of a vessel."

Click here to read the article online.

Related People

Related Services

- Transportation & Logistics