

Four Associates Join Williams Mullen's Norfolk Office

11.25.2008

NORFOLK, VA - Williams Mullen announces that four attorneys have joined the firm's Norfolk office as associates. They include T. Preston Lloyd, Jr., Courtney A. Miller, Scott C. Miller and Carl J. Peterson.

Preston Lloyd focuses his practice on all aspects of commercial real estate transactions and matters related to land use. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Lloyd served as summer law clerk to the Hon. Charles E. Poston and the Hon. Lydia Calvert Taylor in the Norfolk Circuit Court and served in the Office of Governor Mark R. Warner as a governor's fellow to the Secretary of Commerce and Trade. Mr. Lloyd received his juris doctor degree from the University of Virginia School of Law. While in law school, Mr. Lloyd served as chief justice of the William Minor Lile Moot Court Board. He graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in politics and history from the University of Virginia.

Courtney Miller focuses her practice on general health care and business matters. Ms. Miller received her juris doctor degree from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William & Mary. She received a bachelor of science degree, magna cum laude, from James Madison University.

Scott Miller focuses his practice on corporate and commercial litigation matters. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Miller worked in the offices of Congressman, now Senator, Mark Udall of Colorado and Senator John Warner of Virginia. Mr. Miller received his juris doctor degree from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William & Mary. While in law school, he was recognized for his excellence in research, writing, analysis and client relations. Mr. Miller graduated with a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Virginia.

Carl Peterson focuses his practice on general corporate and business law matters, including mergers and acquisitions, securities, venture capital transactions, partnerships, limited liability companies and corporate governance. Mr. Peterson received his juris doctor degree, cum laude, from the University of Richmond School of Law. While in law school, he placed first in the 2005 University of Richmond Negotiation Competition and served as president of the Client Counseling and Negotiation Board. He was also elected to serve as a justice on the school's Honor Council. Mr. Peterson received a bachelor of science degree from Grand Valley State University.

Related People

- T. Preston Lloyd, Jr. – 804.420.6615 – plloyd@williamsmullen.com
- Scott C. Miller – 757.629.0647 – smiller@williamsmullen.com