

COBRA: How the Stimulus Package Affects You

03.25.2009

Presented by

Scott Benefit Services will conduct this seminar to help you understand your responsibilities under the new legislation.

Topic

The date to be in compliance with the new laws is quickly approaching and we continue to receive updates and guidance from the Department of Labor and various other sources which we will share with you. The seminar will consist of a presentation from Brydon Dewitt, an employee benefits attorney with Williams Mullen, as well as a question and answer session with a panel of industry experts that will provide feedback and guidance from their unique perspectives. The areas of expertise represented on the panel are as follows:
