

New Realities in Employment Law Seminar

03.18.2009

David C. Burton and Jeffrey D. Wilson will discuss changes in employment law at a Sterling Educational Services seminar. This seminar, presented by experts in employment and human resources law, will give you a working knowledge of recent developments in the areas most likely to cause problems. Our presenters, accomplished and insightful speakers, can answer your questions regarding practical application of this information. You will benefit from this seminar regardless of your current level of expertise.
