For more than 30 years, Drew Gallalee has handled personal injury litigation from inception to trial in state and federal courts in Virginia, and he has handled cases and/or claims in other states, including Maryland, North Carolina, Florida and California. His practice involves automobile accidents, motorcycle accidents, tractor-trailer accidents, childcare negligence, wrongful death claims, products liability, premises liability, medical malpractice, toxic torts, traumatic brain injuries, libel and slander.

Drew handles only a small volume of serious personal injury cases, allowing him to give each client individual attention. While Drew works with a team of paralegals and associates, you will deal directly with him on all substantive matters related to your case. You will have Drew's direct dial number and cell phone number. He is available to answer any questions and to keep you informed as your case progresses.
