

2010 Virginia General Assembly Land Use Update

03.01.2010

03. 2010

A few bills passed the 2010 General Assembly Session which focus on using land use legislation to assist development in a challenging economic climate. The General Assembly also took up legislation impacting planning for future development related to urban development areas, as well as green building initiatives.

Click on the file below to continue reading...

Click here to join the mailing list for this and other Williams Mullen publications.

Image not found or type unknown

WM Land Use Legislative Alert - March 2010

Related People

Related Services

- Real Estate