

Recent OCI Decision Upholds FCA Liability and Emphasizes Need to Assess Business Interests

10.01.2009

10. 2009

A recent district court opinion affirming a jury decision that held Science Applications International Corporation ("SAIC") liable for failing to disclose organizational conflicts of interest ("OCI") that impacted its contracts with the Nuclear Regulatory Commission ("NRC") raises two important issues for government contractors.

Click on the file below to continue reading...

Click here to join the mailing list for this and other Williams Mullen publications.

Image not found file:///var/www/html/FCWSite/Img/icon_downloadfile.gif

Recent OCI Decision Upholds FCA Liability and Emphasizes Need to Assess Business Interests

Related People

- Robert E. Korroch – 757.629.0624 – rkorroch@williamsmullen.com

Related Services

- Construction
- Government Contracts Litigation and Investigations