

Williams Mullen Chief Operating Officer Craig Rascoe Honored by the Heart of Virginia Council of the Boy Scouts of America

07.17.2013

Richmond, VA. (July 17, 2013) -- Williams Mullen is pleased to announce that Chief Operating Officer Craig Rascoe has been honored with the Outstanding Eagle Scout Award by the Heart of Virginia Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

The Outstanding Eagle Scout Award is a prestigious recognition granted by the local council's Eagle Scout Association committee to Eagle Scouts who have demonstrated outstanding achievement at the local, state, or regional level. Mr. Rascoe has a long history with Scouting: He was a youth member of Troop 103 in Williamsburg. As an adult, he has served as an Assistant Scoutmaster and as member and past president of the Heart of Virginia Council Executive Board.

"The Boy Scouts of America is an organization that I have been involved in for many years, and I'm honored to be recognized with this award," Mr. Rascoe said. "It is an exemplary organization that has a wide and positive impact on young men, and I will continue to support them.

More information about the award is available on the National Eagle Scout Association website here.

Related People

- Craig L. Rascoe – 804.420.6472 – crascoe@williamsmullen.com