

Accomplished Hampton Roads Litigator Adam Casagrande Elected to Williams Mullen Board of Directors

09.03.2013

Williams Mullen is pleased to announce that Adam Casagrande, a litigation shareholder in the Norfolk and Virginia Beach offices, has been elected to the firm's Board of Directors and made a Vice President of the firm. Mr. Casagrande is replacing Will Old, a 29-year veteran of Williams Mullen who left in July to become Chief Legal Officer and Corporate Secretary of Dollar Tree Stores.

"Our leadership is constantly looking at new and innovative ways of doing business," said Tom Frantz, President and CEO of Williams Mullen. "Adam will bring a fresh perspective and new ideas to our firm, and I'm delighted to see him elevated to this position."

Mr. Casagrande has been with Williams Mullen since 2002. During that time, he has become an integral part of the firm and the community, in his work as an attorney, as Head of the firm's Hampton Roads Regional Market and as an active volunteer in the community. In 2011, he was named by Inside Business to their "Top 40 Under 40" list. He also has been recognized by other respected ranking publications, including Virginia Super Lawyers magazine and Inside Business magazine's "Legal Elite" rankings.

"I'm honored by the confidence that my fellow shareholders have shown in me by nominating and electing me to this position," said Mr. Casagrande. "As a member of the Board of Directors, I look forward to working towards our continued growth and, as always, providing excellent service to our clients."

Related People