

NCMA Hampton Roads Contracts & Procurement Symposium

02.26.2014

Come and attend NCMA Hampton Roads Contracts & Procurement Symposium! This event will afford both students and professionals (government and industry) the opportunity to CONNECT-NETWORK-LEARN with their peers and mentors. As a key facilitator of contract and procurement training in the area, the Hampton Roads Chapter is excited about offering this opportunity to anyone who is interested either field.

The Symposium will feature several keynote speakers throughout the day as well as breakout sessions for students interested in a career path in contracts or procurement. We hope that everyone will take advantage of this unique opportunity to join their peers and mentors in a day filled with education, networking, and the potential to expand your horizons.

The event will be held from 8am to 5pm at the UVA/VT combined student center on the Peninsula (600 Thimble Shoals Blvd in the Wells Fargo building on the 2nd floor).

Breakfast and Lunch will be provided.

This is a can't miss event! We hope you will be there with us as we start off the New Year in 2014 by focusing on topics sure to make us better Contracts and Procurement Experts!
