

Brownfield Redevelopment Discussion

04.29.2014

Location:

Williams Mullen
222 Central Park Avenue, Suite 1700
Virginia Beach, VA

ECS Mid-Atlantic, LLC & Williams Mullen cordially invite you to attend a Brownfield Redevelopment Discussion tailored for the Economic Development Community on March 4th from 3 - 5 pm with a reception to follow.

We will educate the EDA community on the technical, legal, financial and regulatory aspects of redeveloping underutilized brownfield properties. Emphasis will be placed on discussing available legal and financial tools which can be employed to reduce perceived risk associated with these properties and increase marketability to future investors.

Speakers:

- Jim Succop, PG, Adam Meurer, CHMM, Jack Lewis, PG – ECS Mid-Atlantic, LLC – Technical Aspects & Success Stories
- Channing Martin, Chair, Environmental Law Group – Williams Mullen – Legal Considerations
- J. Meade Anderson, PG, Brownfields Program Manager, Virginia Department of Environmental Quality – Regulatory Views & Financial Incentives

RSVP: Jack Lewis (757) 366-5100 or jlewis@ecslimited.com
