

Construction Defect Litigation: From A to Z

10.01.2013

Program Description

The field of construction defect litigation is growing and changing at a rapid pace. This crucial update includes new rulings and laws and walks you through the profoundly complex and often emotionally-charged construction defect dispute – from defining a defect, determining liability, uncovering insurance nuances and taking your case to trial.

Course Content

CASE LAW UPDATES: RULINGS THAT AFFECT YOUR WORLD William R. Mauck Jr.

INDEMNITY PROVISIONS: IS THE SUBCONTRACTOR RESPONSIBLE? WHAT ABOUT THE DESIGN PROFESSIONAL W. Alexander Burnett

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS W. Alexander Burnett, Matthew Hundley, William R. Mauck Jr., Eric G. Reeves and C. Jay Robbins

INSURANCE: COVERED VS. UNCOVERED? C. Jay Robbins

LITIGATION: ALLEGATIONS, DEFENSES, AND PROVING YOUR CASE Matthew Hundley and Eric G. Reeves

Related People

- W. Alexander Burnett – 804.420.6481 – aburnett@williamsmullen.com

Related Services

- Construction Litigation