

Brydon DeWitt discusses Supreme Court decision on ACA tax credits with the Richmond Times-Dispatch

06.26.2015

The Supreme Court ruled yesterday that Affordable Care Act premium tax credits will remain available to individuals residing in states that did not establish their own health insurance marketplaces. Employee Benefits Attorney Brydon DeWitt spoke to the Richmond Times-Dispatch on June 25 about what the decision could mean for the future of the law. See what he had to say here.
