11:00 AM MST
10:00 AM PST

Please join us for a complimentary webinar hosted by the law firm of Williams Mullen to learn more about the major issues ITAR presents for defense industry executives. ITAR is an important area of regulation for defense and government contracts firms. This impacts companies in all sectors of this community – services, manufacturing, suppliers of parts and components, DOD-funded R&D. In addition, these regulations have undergone significant amendment as part of Export Control Reform. The stakes are high – violations can result in significant civil and criminal penalties for companies and their employees.

Our program will provide defense and gov con executives a clear overview of this area of the law and practical advice on how to organize their activities to comply with these laws.
