

D.C. Chapter of the National Veterans Small Business Coalition - Panel and Moderator

12.09.2015

On Dec. 9, Tony Anikeeff moderated a panel discussion and a bootcamp presentation on "exit strategies for small business contractors" at the D.C. Chapter of the National Veterans Small Business Coalition's (NVSBC) December meeting. The panel included a leading investment banker and two leading GovCon CEOs in the D.C. area who addressed almost 100 members. The bootcamp presentation to about 20 members furnished practical tips about preparing one's company for acquisition. For more information on the NVSBC, click here.
