

Regional Forum on Economic Development

08.23.2016

On Aug. 23, Tom Frantz - along with the presidents of William & Mary, Old Dominion, VCU and other selected leaders from Hampton Roads and Richmond - will speak at the Regional Forum on Economic Development on the campus of William & Mary. Learning more about opportunities created by the GO Virginia initiative will be a primary focus of the forum, which also will include broader discussion of new ways to work together to grow Virginia's economy and expand boundaries for cooperation between business, higher education and government. Ideas and examples will be shared. For more information, click here.
