

Steve Test Admitted as a Fellow to the American College of Trial Lawyers

09.20.2016

Congratulations to Steve Test on being inducted as a Fellow by the American College of Trial Lawyers. Steve was officially inducted on Sept. 17 at the College's annual meeting in Philadelphia. He joins Howard Dobbins and the late Donald Clark as Williams Mullen attorneys who have been inducted into the college.

Founded in 1950, the College is composed of the best of the trial bar from the United States and Canada. Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only and only after careful investigation, to those experienced trial lawyers of diverse backgrounds, who have mastered the art of advocacy and whose professional careers have been marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility and collegiality. Lawyers must have a minimum of fifteen years trial experience before they can be considered for Fellowship.

Membership in the College cannot exceed one percent of the total lawyer population of any state or province. There are currently approximately 5800 members in the United States and Canada, including active Fellows, Emeritus Fellows, Judicial Fellows (those who ascended to the bench after their induction) and Honorary Fellows. For more information on the College, visit their website here.
