

Andy Nea Honored with Community Pro Bono Advocate Award by CancerLINC

05.15.2017

Congratulations to Andy Nea, who was honored by CancerLINC with a Community Pro Bono Advocate Award at their annual awards luncheon last week. The award recognizes an individual whose pro bono work has improved the lives of cancer patients and their families. Andy was recognized for his work in planning and executing CancerLINC's monthly life planning workshops, which provide life planning documents for cancer patients.
