

Williams Mullen Advises Bank of McKenney in Merger with Citizens Community Bank

06.30.2017

On Wednesday, June 28, Bank of McKenney and Citizens Community Bank announced an agreement to merge the two community banks to create an entity with approximately $447 million in assets. The combined bank, which will be rebranded, will combine the Bank of McKenney's branches, which range from Dinwiddie to Chesterfield on the southside of Richmond, with Citizens Community Bank's branches, which includes locations in South Hill, Gasburg and Boydton, as well as three branches across the state line in North Carolina.

Williams Mullen's Community Banking team consisting of Scott Richter, Ben McCall, Christina Edwards, Nona Massengill and Anna Derewenda represented Bank of McKenney in the deal.
