

Education Webinar: College Retirement Plan Compliance in a New Era of Increased Litigation

08.10.2017

Over the past year, several major universities have been the subject of lawsuits alleging employees paid unreasonable and excessive fees under their retirement plans, resulting a large loss of savings. Experts predict similar suits to follow against colleges and universities, large and small around the nation. This free webinar will review the legal considerations, implications of ongoing case law and steps that can be taken to better prepare and protect your institution.
