

Risk Allocation Strategies When Drafting and Negotiating Indemnification Provisions

02.01.2018

On Feb. 1, 2018, Alex Burnett participated on a CLE panel hosted by The Knowledge Group titled "Risk Allocation Strategies When Drafting and Negotiating Indemnification Provisions." The panelists discussed "the basics of drafting and negotiating indemnification provisions in a wide range of situations, and how to spot certain litigation issues that may potentially arise out of indemnification provisions." They also offered practical drafting tips, identified how to avoid common pitfalls in contractual indemnity clauses and provided proven risk allocation strategies designed to help avoid contractual disputes.
