

Discussion with United States District Court Judge Louise Flanagan

04.13.2018

On April 13, Allison Cohan moderated a discussion with United States District Court Judge Louise Flanagan during a luncheon hosted by the Young Lawyers Division (YLD) of the Eastern District of North Carolina's Chapter of the Federal Bar Association. The discussion included the opportunity to learn about Judge Flanagan's career, her role in renovating in the New Bern Federal Courthouse and what advice she would give lawyers who practice in federal court. For more information on the Federal Bar Association's Eastern District of North Carolina Chapter, visit their website here.

Related People