

Dave Albo Discusses Development of Medical Cannabis Licensing Process in Virginia

06.18.2018

This year, the Virginia Board of Pharmacy will issue licenses to allow a medical cannabis oil dispensary in each of Virginia's health service areas. The deadline to apply to receive one of the licenses was June 8. Williams Mullen's Dave Albo, who as a state delegate sponsored one of the first bills to sanction CBD oil use, discussed the ongoing process in a recent story from the Richmond Times-Dispatch. Click below to read.

RTD: Virginia receives 49 applications for the state's first 5 medical cannabis licenses

Related People

- Hon. David B. Albo ? 703.760.5210 ? dalbo@williamsmullen.com

Related Services

- Government Relations