

Andy Nea Receives the Virginia Bar Association's Roger D. Groot Pro Bono Publico Service Award

07.23.2018

Congratulations to Andy Nea, who received the Roger D. Groot Pro Bono Publico Service Award at the Virginia Bar Association's summer meeting on July 20. Williams Mullen's Jim Meath presented Andy with the award, which is given in recognition and appreciation of outstanding pro bono and community service. Andy created the Wills for Seniors program, which provides life planning documents to those in need across the state. In 2016 alone, he coordinated 27 wills clinics that served 438 clients with the help of 98 attorney volunteers and 62 law students. To read the announcement from the VBA, click here.
