

Williams Mullen Hires Brett Harn as Director of Finance & Accounting

07.16.2018

Williams Mullen is pleased to announce that Brett Harn has joined the firm as the director of finance & accounting. He will be based in the firm's Richmond office and will work closely with all eight of the firm's offices. Mr. Harn joins Williams Mullen after working as the director of finance for Keller and Heckman LLP in Washington D.C. He has more than 20 years of experience in a broad range of accounting and finance functions.

As the firm's director of finance & accounting, Mr. Harn will be responsible for the firm's financial operations and will oversee daily accounting functions, compliance, regulatory requirements and the preparation of financial reports and analyses.

"Brett is a talented financial executive with extensive experience in the legal industry," Williams Mullen President & CEO Woody Fowler said. "He will lead the dedicated people we have in our finance and accounting department and will help us continue to focus on effectively managing the business aspects of our firm."

During his career, Mr. Harn has developed and led strategic initiatives to improve business processes, reporting and pricing and implemented value-added software packages for use by legal and non-legal professionals alike. Prior to his role at Keller and Heckman, he worked for seven years as a manager of financial analysis & reporting at Dickstein Shapiro LLP and for eight years at Dow Lohnes PLLC.

He earned both his M.B.A. in finance and marketing and his B.A. in finance from Virginia Tech.
