

Williams Mullen Welcomes Litigation Attorney Greg Crapanzano

10.04.2018

Williams Mullen is pleased to announce that Gregory A. “Greg” Crapanzano, II, has joined the firm as a litigation associate. Mr. Crapanzano joins Williams Mullen after more than two years as a law clerk for The Hon. John A. Gibney, Jr. at the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. Before that, he spent two years as an associate at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP in New York City.

Mr. Crapanzano represents clients in complex commercial litigation matters at the state and federal levels, including regulatory proceedings, investigations, and administrative matters. He assists clients throughout the litigation process, from pre-filing advice through settlement negotiations and trial.

“Greg adds more depth to our team of talented litigators,” Litigation Practice Chair Turner Broughton said. “He is very familiar with the Eastern District of Virginia, and we think he’s a great fit for our firm and our clients.”

Mr. Crapanzano earned his Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from Washington and Lee University, and he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Virginia. While at UVA, he founded a community service organization called Peanuts and Crackerjacks, which is dedicated to mentoring Charlottesville elementary school children and still thrives today.

Related People

- Gregory A. Crapanzano, II – 804.420.6309 – gcrapanzano@williamsmullen.com

Related Services

- Litigation