

Corporate Attorney Trevor Wind Joins Williams Mullen

10.15.2018

Williams Mullen is pleased to announce that Trevor Wind has joined the firm as an associate in the firm's Business & Corporate Section, where he will focus his practice on mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings, corporate governance and commercial transactions. Mr. Wind joins Williams Mullen from Kaplan, Voekler, Cunningham & Frank, PLC.

"We're excited to welcome Trevor to our already deep bench of corporate attorneys," Business & Corporate Section Chair Greg Bishop said. "We're confident he will be an asset in helping us deliver exceptional service to our corporate, M&A and securities clients."

Mr. Wind brings experience in corporate finance as well as public and private securities offerings. He has represented numerous sponsors and other issuers in private offerings under Regulation D. He has advised Securities and Exchange Commission-registered investment advisors on compliance related to their structuring of private funds. In addition, he has represented issuers in numerous publicly registered offerings and offerings exempt from registration pursuant to Regulation A. He also assists clients with general business and corporate matters, including entity formations, fund formations and joint venture and general contract negotiations.

He earned his Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, and his Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Richmond. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Virginia.
