

Treasury and IRS Issue Proposed Qualified Opportunity Zone Regulations

10.19.2018

Today, October 19, 2018, the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) issued proposed regulations on the qualified opportunity zone (“OZ”) tax incentive. In addition, the IRS issued Revenue Ruling 2018-29 relating to the “original use” and “substantial improvement” provisions of Section 1400Z-2(d)(2)(D) of the OZ statute. Williams Mullen is in the process of reviewing the proposed regulations and the Revenue Ruling and will issue an alert summarizing this OZ guidance in due course. For additional OZ resources, please view our OZ webpage.

Related People

- Jenny H. Connors – 804.420.6582 – jconnors@williamsmullen.com

Related Services

- Qualified Opportunity Zones
- Tax Law
- Estate Planning: Private Client & Fiduciary Services
- Land Use
- Real Estate
- Real Estate Development