

NC Pro Bono Resource Center Highlights Elizabeth Davenport Scott's Pro Bono Efforts

12.03.2018

In November 2018, Elizabeth Scott helped organize a three-firm driver's license restoration and training pro bono session in Raleigh. In addition to this pro bono work, Elizabeth serves as a member of the North Carolina Equal Access to Justice Commission and has also provided pro bono legal services for Step Up Ministries, a charitable organization helping individuals in need.

Recently, the NC Pro Bono Resource Center wrote an article highlighting Elizabeth's pro bono efforts for their monthly newsletter. To read the article, click below.
