The Virginia General Assembly passed several important pieces of legislation affecting the solar industry during its 2019 legislative session. Join us on Thursday, March 28, from 11:00 – 11:30 am (EST) for an informative and timely webinar for an update on recently passed legislation pertaining to solar in Virginia.

The webinar will be hosted by Brad Nowak and Bob Riley, co-chairs of Williams Mullen's Solar Energy team, who will be joined by Patrick Cushing, vice chair of Williams Mullen's Governmental Relations practice group.

What you will learn about:

- New decommissioning bond legislation affecting solar energy facilities.
- Public school building and facilities modernization legislation.
- Establishment of net energy metering provisions for electric cooperative service territories.
- Creation of the Clean Energy Advisory Board and the Low-to-Moderate Income Solar Loan and Rebate Pilot Program.
