

Christine Piersall Certified as an Accredited Estate Planner by the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils

07.03.2019

Congratulations to Christine Piersall, who has been newly certified as an Accredited Estate Planner[®] by the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils (NAEPC). The AEP[®] designation is a graduate level, multi-disciplinary specialization in estate planning, obtained in addition to already recognized professional credentials within the various disciplines of estate planning.

It is awarded by the NAEPC to recognize estate planning professionals who meet stringent requirements of experience, knowledge, education, professional reputation, and character. An AEP[®] designee must embrace the team concept of estate planning and adhere to the NAEPC Code of Ethics, as well as participate in an annual renewal and recertification process.

Christine is the chair of the Estate Planning: Private Client & Fiduciary Services Practice at Williams Mullen. She focuses her practice primarily on estate tax planning, estate and trust taxation and administration and elder law. For more information on the NAEPC, click here.
