

Virginia Clean Energy Summit

09.17.2019

Bradley Nowak, co-chair of Williams Mullen's Solar Energy practice group, will moderate the Solar Farms and Land Use in Virginia panel at the inaugural Virginia Clean Energy Summit, being held on September 17, 2019 in Richmond, Virginia. The panel will discuss key considerations, challenges, and best practices in developing utility-scale solar projects in Virginia. The Summit is a collaboration of five organizations: Maryland-DC-Delaware-Virginia Solar Energy Industries Association (MDV-SEIA), Resilient Virginia, Virginia Advanced Energy Economy (Virginia AEE), Virginia Energy Efficiency Council (VAEEC), and Virginia Renewable Energy Alliance (VA-REA).

Location:

Richmond Convention Center
403 N. 3rd Street
Richmond, VA 23219
