

Webinar: Re-Opening Businesses - Workplace and Employment Law Considerations

04.28.2020

North Carolina's Southeast, in conjunction with Williams Mullen, for a webinar to discuss major points related to companies returning to full operational status and employees returning to their work environments. Areas of discussion will include physical space requirements, flexible worksites/shifts, service and product delivery, as well as human resource policies and potential litigation risks for business and industry. NCSE encourages local economic developers to share this webinar opportunity with their existing industries as they will be directly engaged with transitioning back to full staffing and operating capacity.

Led by Michael Lord.
