

The 2020 Business Solutions Series: Does Your Mandatory Training Program Comply with the Emergency Temporary Standard (ETS)?

08.25.2020

Join us for an overview of critical components of training programs for all Virginia employers that must be completed by September 25, 2020.

Presented by the Hampton Roads Alliance and Williams Mullen

Topics include:

- Classifying your employees by exposure risk levels and informing them of the same.
- Creating a lawful training program for your employees on the ETS.
- Which employers must create an infectious disease plan and what the plan and training must include.
- Anti-discrimination provisions of the ETS.
