

Mergers & Acquisitions Informational Network Launching in Hampton Roads

11.03.2021

The Association for Corporate Growth, a worldwide business organization focused on mergers and acquisitions, launched a new network in Hampton Roads. Dubbed 757 Network, the region's newest business network kicked off on Nov. 3 at Town Point Club, 101 W. Main St., Norfolk. Experts addressed the alternative pathways business owners have to move out of daily operations including selling to strategic buyers, employees or giving to family members. Panelists included Taylor Grant, managing partner, Fox Three Partners; John Paris, partner, Williams Mullen; Gavin Raphael, principal, Light & Raphael; and Justin Tu, senior manager, BDO.
