

Pruett Quoted in ABA Article on Lawyer Wellness

05.16.2022

Amy Pruetz was quoted in an article from the American Bar Association, "Lawyer wellness starts with great leaders."

She comments on the significance of leadership in regard to talent development, engagement and productivity, saying "legal leadership and law firm culture is central to talent retention and well-being...leaders are central ? they really drive what culture is and how it's perceived."

She finishes by remarking that "Above all, keeping a flexible and open mind about what works for you and your organization ? is the best and most open mind to have."
