

Joy Heath Named to North Carolina Lawyers Weekly's 2023 Power List for Health Care

07.07.2023

Williams Mullen is pleased to announce that Joy Heath has been named to the 2023 North Carolina Lawyers Weekly Power List for health care. Heath, a partner in our Raleigh office, was recognized amongst several others for her outstanding achievements and notable experience in the industry. Heath has over 30 years of experience representing clients in the health care industry in business and regulatory matters, primarily focusing on Certificate of Need (CON), acquisitions and compliance-related matters.

The Power List program recognizes those it determines to be top lawyers in a particular practice area who excel in their field and are known for their accomplishments.
